

Ms. Andrews' Weekly News

FEBRUARY 7, 2020

Important Dates

February 18-22- Mid- Winter Break

March 5- Celebration of Learning (see attached flyer)

Our Learning

We have been in kindergarten for 89 days!!!
Here's what happened in our class this week

- Writer's Workshop- We finished our opinion writing and will do some letter writing next week.
- Reader's Workshop- we worked on sounding out CVCC words (consonant, vowel, consonant consonant).
- Math- We continued to work on number bonds and story problems. We also made the calendar and practiced writing our numbers correctly and neatly.
- Learned our weekly poem "The Party" and did our step by step drawing for our poetry book.
- We made our "snap" sentence and learned to read and write the word "with". This book will be travelling to your home soon!

Important Information

Thank you for sending in supplies for decorating our friendship bags! We still could use foam hearts, ribbon etc. Valentine's Day is so much fun in kindergarten!!

"What's in the bag?"

The item should start with the letter Vv (vest, violin)

Star of the Week is

Mason!

Please return the poster in the tube on Monday.

Reminders

We will be having our February art docent lesson on Thursday. If possible, please join us and help out with this project.
